Title:	Asia Projects Manager (APM)
Duration:	5 years
Date required:	As soon as available
Location of work:	Victoria, Canada

ABOUT THE ARTISANAL GOLD COUNCIL

The Artisanal Gold Council (AGC) is a not-for-profit organization based in Victoria, Canada. The AGC is dedicated to improving the opportunities, environment, and health of the millions of people involved in artisanal and small-scale gold mining (ASGM) in the developing world. Led by a multidisciplinary team of experts, the AGC is one of the few agencies in the world that has the sustainable development of the ASGM sector as its core mission.

Established in 2007, the AGC is known for innovation. We develop practical solutions to the challenges of the sector based on our deep field experience in artisanal and small-scale mining communities. The AGC employs an integrated approach to our programs focused on improved practices, governance, health, the environment, gender, markets and livelihoods.

The AGC is a fast-growing organization that is currently implementing projects in over a dozen countries around the world. For more, visit: www.artisanalgold.org

POSITION OVERVIEW

The Asia Projects Manager (APM) will serve in a senior role within the organization and will be directly responsible for the successful delivery of parallel projects in East and Southeast Asia that have the reduction of mercury use in the ASGM sector as a goal. In addition to providing overall direction and oversight for the projects, the APM will ensure the achievement of project results while effectively managing project budgets, resources and timelines.

Working in Victoria, BC, and leveraging a successful career-to-date in managing large scale, complex development projects, the APM will work within the existing framework of AGC policies and practices, as well as ensuring the project follows funder guidelines. The APM will report directly to the AGC Director of Programs and will be required to work in close collaboration with country managers and staff in E. and S.E. Asia.

RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

- Overall responsibility for all aspects of project operations in E. and S.E. Asia including the development of project implementation and work plans, project strategies, finances, logistics, communications, governance, project monitoring and evaluation, and administration
- Day-to-day monitoring of project implementation and progress

- Regular reporting to the Director of Programs and Executive Director on progress, challenges, opportunities and learnings encountered during implementation
- Prepare project reports as required by the executive director, funders, regulatory bodies, and other project entities
- Recruit, train and provide ongoing support to country managers in E. and S.E. Asia in line with good employment practice, ensuring that they understand AGC employment policies and guidelines and that they work to support the core values of the organization
- Help to develop and foster an organizational culture that attracts, retains, and motivates staff; provide leadership to staff, volunteers and partners and ensure a common vision and sense of purpose under which individuals constantly seek to learn, improve their own performances and the performance of the organization
- Refine operational systems and policies to ensure organizational compliance and effectiveness
- Ensure that staff are clear about their roles and responsibilities and held directly accountable for their work, conduct performance reviews of project staff, manage project staff concerns and conflicts, oversee staff contracts and remuneration, and facilitate staff meetings
- Collaborate with Executive Director and Finance Manager in the development of annual budgets and financial reporting
- Develop the organization's public profile and foster effective and productive relations with other NGOs, media organizations, government, and private entities in E. and S.E. Asia; represent AGC and act as spokesperson at public functions, meetings and to the media as needed
- Ensure that there are mechanisms in place to receive feedback from staff, advisors, and external stakeholders regarding both the performance of the office in the E. and S.E. Asia and potential areas for future attention
- Occasional travel to project sites, meetings, workshops and other fora as required

QUALIFICATIONS, EXPERIENCE AND PROFESSIONAL QUALITIES

The successful candidate will:

- Have a Master's or PhD degree in a relevant discipline (e.g.: Mining, International Development, Environmental Studies, etc.)
- Demonstrate an in-depth understanding of artisanal and small-scale mining through prior work experience
- Demonstrate the ability to manage large, complex international development projects with multimillion-dollar budgets and complex governance arrangements
- Have significant experience with development and donor projects, and adapting project delivery to the guidelines and requirements of funding partners
- Have significant experience with government relations, and partnering with government institutions in an international context
- Have excellent written communications skills including the ability to write progress reports, policy analyses, and media pieces
- Be able to communicate effectively with a variety of stakeholders from miners to government officials, as well as present project results at public fora, and speak to the media
- Be self-motivated, able to prioritize, and work with minimal guidance
